Message to All Readers: Many thanks to those of you have attended the training sessions last week on the new lectionary translation. If anyone has missed, please could you contact me or Deacon David (01494763518), to arrange for an update on the changes, which take effect from the 1st Sunday of Advent (30 November/1st December) this year. At each Mass for the 1st Sunday of Advent we will bless the new Lectionaries and carry out a formal Institution of the Readers present. This will take place after the Collect and then the Readers for the Mass will be presented with the new Lectionary to read from. The Rite of Institution of Readers highlights the need for prayerful and meditative preparation for your readings. May I request all the Readers to go through your Readings beforehand, and arrive at least five minutes before the Mass, to make sure that the Lectionary page is correctly kept. The person doing the bidding prayers, kindly go through it early. Finally, please do not rush through the readings but do it loudly and clearly. It's a proclamation of the Word of God!

Christmas Card Sale: A beautiful collection of cards is available in both Churches. Kindly purchase them and support the parish initiative. Christmas Cards from Aid to the Church in Need and the SVP are also now available at Our Lady's and will be on sale after Mass for the next few Sundays. Cards are in packs of 10 and cost £5.00 Please bring cash as they cannot be paid for by Tap and Go."

Fr Jerome would be happy to receive your old lectionaries for onward shipping to Nigeria.

Chiltern Food Bank: Diane writes that this is their busiest month in terms of clients, as everyone is trying to live up to their expectations of food and celebrations and to give their families a boost in their winter darkness. The foodstuffs they would like to receive now are Christmas Cakes, Chocolates, Chocolate Biscuits, Savoury Nibbles, Mince Pies.

Assisted Suicide Bill: We are urged by the Bishops of England, Wales and Scotland to 'raise our voices' and to 'take action' to oppose assisted suicide and to write to our MPs. The House of Commons is due to vote on the bill on Nov 29th, 2024. Please read and sign a letter to our MP available after Mass this weekend and next.
