Happy Mothering Sunday: The fourth Sunday of Lent is called, "Laetare Sunday", which also coincides with Mothering Sunday. It's a day of thanksgiving, for the love and care of our mothers, grandmothers, and mother figures. In spiritual sense, we celebrate the nurturing love of God, and the mother church. To celebrate the occasion, we shall bless flowers during Mass this weekend and give to all the mothers.

Second Collection: We shall have a second collection this weekend for HCPT (Hosanna House and Children's Pilgrimage Trust). HCPT is facing financial constraints to continue this mission. So, let's support them through our generous donations.

No Mass: Please note, there will be No Mass on Monday 16th March at St. Aidan's.

Parish Lunch: The next parish lunch at St. Aidan's will be on Sunday 22nd March, at 1.00pm. Please find the signup sheet in the narthex.

National Study of RCIA/OCIA Participants in England and Wales: This year an important research project is being undertaken to better understand the journey and profile of those coming into the Catholic Church at Easter. This is the first ever comprehensive study of Catholic RCIA/OCIA catechumens across England and Wales. The study is being led from St Mary's Catholic University Twickenham, Bishop Lincoln and York St John University's. Please share this survey link with your RCIA/OCIA participants and encourage them to complete it: <https://tinyurl.com/RCIA26>
